

MONTANA HAIL INSURANCE PROGRAM

Protecting Montana's producers for 100 years

1917

The Montana Hail Insurance Program was set up by the 1917 legislature when private insurers refused to write policies in Big Horn and Powder River Counties.

$1,935,498,036

Total Risk Written

25

Different crops insured, including:

alfalfa seed, barley, beans, buckwheat, canola, corn, durum wheat, flax, hay, lentils, millet, mustard, oats, peas, safflower, sanfoin, sorghum, soybeans, speltz, spring wheat, sugar beets, sunflower, triticale, winter wheat.

82,424,807

Acres Insured

$124,680,459

Amount of Losses Paid

200,268

Policies Issued

The Montana Hail Insurance Program is administered through the Montana Department of Agriculture. Visit our website at: agr.mt.gov/agr/producer/hailinsurance