- Montana had the largest Hemp Acres in 2018
- Montana Hemp Plan is a public document
- Sampling/testing
  - MT state size will play a factor
  - Staffing needed
  - Costs will be covered by fees collected
  - Waiting on USDA regulations
- MT cannot waive fees, if MT does not charge a fee USDA will not accept the “MT Plan”, and all farmers will be under USDA
- What is a Location? -still to be determined- working, comments welcome
  - Ben “Not trying to bring in more funds, by definition of the word “location”

Organic Hemp:
Andy Gray discussed “Certified” Organic Hemp
- Third Party Independent Seeds
  - Montana Seed Growers Agency/Association

Assessments and Fees:
- Christy Clark discussed that regulatory fees are different from assessment fees. Assessment fees are used for research, education, and marketing.
  - Assessment must be collected on the first point of sale, can be tricky
- Andy Gray gave an estimate on what funds would possibly be needed to cover costs
- Fees were discussed for each “seed group”, no amount was decided upon
- Perry Miller from MSU, research takes money; assessment is needed
Other Legal Considerations:
- Cort discussed the need for a “Transportation Map”, for correct and legal transportation
  - State to State map, contact with growers, what states are legal for Hemp
- Cort discussed CBD
- MT AGR will work with County Health
- Processors discussed- Out of State and Montana

Questions/Public Comment:

John Porterfield- Hail Insurance Coverage?
  A-Yes, through the MT State Hail program

Stan Bates- Suggested that the department explains (to the public) the fees and what the money will be used for.

Bum Stiffarm- wished there would have been more tribal involvement/interest in the meeting.

Ben talked about the Public Comment period, ending on April 9.
Cort suggested to email or write in questions if there were more

Adjourn:
Ben adjourned the meeting at 3:17pm
